

CFF Open Meeting

Saturday 24 March 2018

We warmly invite you to our Open Meeting at the NCVO 8 All Saints Street, London N1 9RL – 10 mins walk from Kings Cross Station. Directions on Google Maps here.

Capacity, Consent, Best Interest Assessments and Advocacy

What do they mean and what are the implications for you and your family member? Changes are afoot. Come and hear from those working with people with learning disabilities both within Camphill and in the wider social care field. How do they assess capacity and consent? How do they support people to make choices? How and when should families be involved? How should your views be listened to? We would like to hear of your experiences too.

Our speakers

Sabine Hope from the Mount Camphill Community in Sussex works with people with learning disabilities and has a lot of experience of day-to-day choices and decisions.

Richard Allen, an experienced Advocate from “Voiceability”, an Independent Advocacy Service in Wandsworth, will tell us about his work with people with learning disabilities. Independent Advocates can be called in to help someone make a decision, particularly if a conflict has arisen. They work confidentially and always with the person’s best interests in mind.
